Working with ad hoc for Google workspace setup. RCM Report

July 2025

Next Region is July 18th, 19th, and 20th

Anyone can join and attend. There is zoom information on our region website. Naflorida.org

If you would like to attend in person, please see RCM 1 or 2 if additional information is needed.

Area Support:

Region- take back moms and children in meetings and listing things for meetings like kid friendly

- Homegroups be welcoming and supportive be understanding and compassionate
- Some groups have someone or designated person to watch
- More experienced members try to step in and help with the children
- Closed meetings are meant for people that do not want children
- Or put no children on meeting lists
- Open meetings mean children welcome -do not wait to say no children until something happens
- Members who attended meetings regularly with children have a special backpack that
- has activities they only play with at meetings
- Put on meeting list children supervision required or if homegroup can provide 2 members at one time every 15 mins to watch children and put on meeting list parental provided childcare.

Corrections is asking for members participation for meetings behind the walls. Angelo Bosco in Bay Area is in charge of this at region. Reach out to him for more information.

Liability Insurance for Areas:

- Extensive discussion with areas who are seeking support and connections for liability insurance as well as experiences shared by those whom already are covered: Coquina Area (long-standing policy), Treasure Coast Area
- (recent policy, ~$1600/year), a member from Free State Region (Maryland), and the River Coast Area using South Florida Region's assistance to procure insurance at $25/facility. Methods like being added as an "additional insured" on a facility's policy were discussed.
- Discussion highlighted the varying levels of understanding of the insurance business and thus, some basic standard information was shared. The DEC page of the insurance of one group can be provided to a new insurance company to get a comparable quote. Covering meetings and activities must be clear, and facilities where events or meetings are held may want additional insured certificates or special riders to specify the application of the insurance.
- Decision/Action (Regional): FD Leader (Belynda) requested all areas with insurance information to email FD@naflorida.org. FD will compile these resources into an FAQ or list to be published on the website.

Area Conventions & Liability (Suncoast):

- (Suncoast) asked for experience on how an area can protect itself when hosting a convention, especially regarding liability and potential downsides (e.g., draining activities committee resources, convention becoming the area's sole focus).
- Discussion included the necessity of separate convention insurance and potential pitfalls. Richard (Tampa Funcoast) offered to connect Suncoast with experienced convention planners.

These are the questions asked from our area that were taken to the RD/AD at Region regarding the motion to give up the service symposium. We also invited the RD/AD to area this month for more clarification and to answer any more questions before voting on this next month.

What happens to the money IF the region lets go of symposium?

Well my hope will be that the body agrees to set aside some seed money for the SEZF if they decide to go ahead with picking up the symposium as I asked when I first introduced the topic. The rest is up to the voting body. The SEZF does have a workgroup in progress.

If we get rid of the symposium and zone does not pick it up can we retroactive and pick it back up?

that would be up to the body however this is a task that would be a waste of money and recourses giving the change of landscaping with the concept and mission of the Florida symposium

Can the service symposium be streamlined or condensed to cut down on hours of work that go into planning? Has this ever been discussed?

Yes we have looked at how to stream line it however again we run into the problem of the landscaping and mission of the concept of the symposium

If The region lets go of the symposium where this be another service related event in its place?

That will be up to the body.

Other Important Info:

- There was an $8k loss from last years symposium
- attendance is down and low attendance is making it harder to get trusted servants from the world board to come to the symposium
- other symposiums are hosted by multiple regions overing larger geographical areas and are able to plan and host a symposium that aligns with the mission of the florida symposium
- hotels are charging more and specifically higher rates durin march and april when the symposium is held and the cleanlines and quality of the facility florida region can afford is not good and other hotels are charging spring break rates
- other symposiums do not serve food and banquets freeing up funds towards mission and better serving the symposium

- Discussion included the necessity of separate convention insurance and potential pitfalls. Richard (Tampa Funcoast) offered to connect Suncoast with experienced convention planners.

Predatory Behavior & Selling Drugs in Meetings (Treasure Coast):

Raised by Sarah (Treasure Coast). A serious issue of specific male members targeting newcomer women with sexual harassment and attempting to sell them drugs. This was causing women to avoid meetings or only attend women's meetings.

Discussion included:

Referencing the Florida Region's "Predatory Behavior IP" (available on naflorida.org).

The responsibility of home groups to address such behavior.

The appropriateness of involving law enforcement, especially for drug dealing or assault. A focus was mentioned to reach out to the local LE presence to just meet and ask for help, rather than try to direct them to an "arrest". They are community members that care about their home and they want to be involved with the solutions as well.

Personal accountability and members needing to use their voices, and go in groups if need be
See something, say something, DO SOMETHING

The damage such behavior does to NA's reputation and newcomers' recovery.

This behavior pushes women to the womens' only meetings and this harms the fellowship by lowering their feeling of safety and removing them from the regular meetings where they are unable to add their ESH.

Sarah (Treasure Coast) mentioned she had contacted police but faced difficulties getting a response.

Concepts 6, 8, 10 & Inclusivity in Area Service (Greater Orlando):

Stefan (Greater Orlando) raised concerns about his area's leadership not being inclusive, not allowing members to ask questions of subcommittee chairs during area service, and members facing repercussions for raising grievances, feeling it violated these concepts.

Discussion emphasized self-reflection, the importance of applying principles, and the potential for individual behavior to be the common denominator in conflicts.

Focusing on what we truly have power over may be a simpler path to peace/understanding.

Clear NA Message at H&I:

Ninnah raised concerns about H&I panel members sharing war stories, using non-NA language (e.g., "sober,"

"clubs," "alcohol" without context as a drug), or promoting recovery without a sponsor.

Discussion highlighted the responsibility of area H&I subcommittees to properly train panel leaders (using NAWS resources, etc.), the importance of pairing new H&I members with experienced ones, and the need for members to gently correct inappropriate sharing.

Guidance/Emphasis: Strong emphasis on area-level H&I responsibility for training and messaging.

Engaging Older Members/Members with Significant Clean Time:

Helena (Suncoast, visitor) raised the topic of fewer "seasoned members" in some areas and how to re-engage them.

Discussion points: personal invitations to speak, making service accessible and appealing, understanding that "old timer" is relative, reasons for disengagement (health, feeling unheard, changes in NA), the value of their experience, PR efforts targeting them, and events like brunches specifically for them. Ernest shared his perspective on balancing life and service. Some members can no longer drive at night.

If we remain complacent for too long, our recovery ceases.

These are the questions asked from our area that were taken to the RD/AD at Region regarding the motion to give up the service symposium. We also invited the RD/AD to area this month for more clarification and to answer any more questions before voting on this next month.

Social medial report for July 6 2025

June 27- July 3

A PR video was advertised July 1-6 at a cost of $71.42, approximately $20 of that was an "Apple Service Fee." I am currently researching ways to avoid that fee and I'm confident that there's a way around it.

The Page has 3 video's (music /voice over of We Do Recover, Just for Today and What is the NA Program) with NAPasco.org and the helpline number at the end as well as 9 meme with the web ^{address} and help line to use in rotation. There will be more to follow
